MISSION

Membership with RTDNA is indispensable for every electronic journalist. We are the world's largest and only professional organization exclusively serving the electronic news profession and we are made up of news directors, news staff, educators and students all engaged in the production of news for all media.

Founded as a grassroots organization in 1946, its purpose was to set standards of news gathering and reporting. Although news techniques and technologies have changed since the early years of its founding, RTDNA's commitment to encouraging excellence in the electronic journalism industry remains the same.

We provide our members a wealth of information on technological developments, industry trends, management techniques and legislative updates. With a host of member benefits, networking opportunities and outlets for professional growth, RTDNA membership is essential for any electronic journalist.

WHY JOIN RTDNA?

You cover the news every day. It's a challenging job filled with deadlines, ethical decisions, shrinking budgets and growing competition. Have you ever wished you had a resource with the knowledge and experience to find solutions to the difficult questions? A friend in the business you could turn to for advice? A place where thousands of people just like you can share ideas and learn from the best? You can find it all at RTDNA.

DO YOU WANT:

- Advice from experienced news leaders?
- Thousands of examples of award-winning news stories?
- Ethical guidelines for covering the news?
- Legal advice for routine and exceptional situations?
- Training opportunities with ideas you can use?
- Networking opportunities with thousands of working journalists?

WE'VE GOT ALL THAT, PLUS:

- Tools for reporting a variety of issues.
- The latest newsroom research.
- Leads on scholarships, fellowships and careers.
- Current job postings from around the country.
- Access to our membership directory.
- Daily industry headlines and journalism news.

AND BEING A MEMBER SAVES YOU MONEY!

- Discounted entry fees for the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Awards.
- Discounted registration to the Excellence in Journalism Conference (this discount alone covers the cost of your membership).
